COMMENT:

While a tremendous amount of monthly data and fragmentary information on wood exports reaches this headquarters, this particular report is deemed definitely valuable as it is the overall planning document for the entire year and covers the whole year. The breakdown into anticipated quarterly movements is a considerable aid to analysis, especially when much of the information used to develop a really firm figure on the amount of actually exported is quite fragmentary and apt to be misleading.

Please classify this report, if appropriate, and return to DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY DETACHMENT
